Winter 2009 Newsletter

Sometimes you just feel like the inside of a pocket turned inside-out. Me and the lint. This is one of those times. Ruff Life has been sold (no need to worry about hurricanes anymore), and Ken and I are dealing with, among other things, culture shock. Back in the US, here's what Christmas looked like-beautiful, but cold! Currently huddled inside, painting furniture, gourds and knick knacks. Please visit my new Shop section for a selection.

The newsletter comes out quarterly, but add me to your 'Favorites' list and check periodically for new pieces.

Thank you for visiting!

"A beautiful gourd has arrived...I am so delighted that you chose that piece to send to me. I can't wait to show it off. You must really enjoy what you paint because it comes through in your art."
